

THE FAAHPN

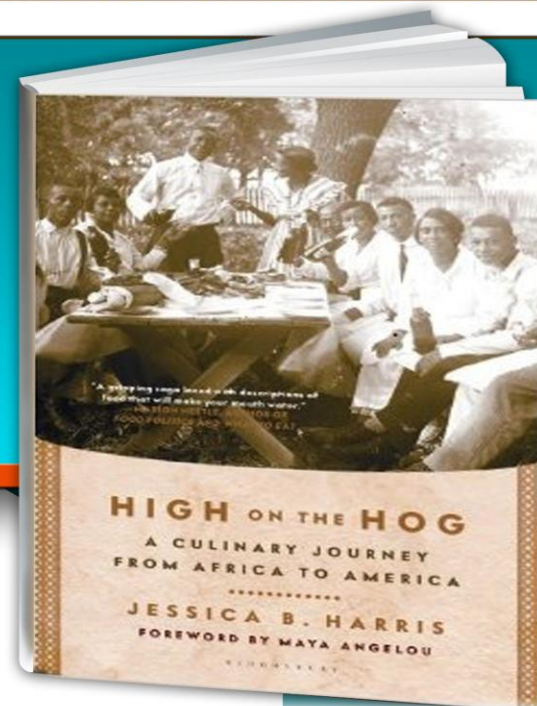

Florida African American Heritage Preservation Network
PRESENTS ITS 2015 BIENNIAL STATEWIDE CONFERENCE

PLACES OF EMPOWERMENT
REDEFINING THE ROLE OF CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS:
Saving, Interpreting and Accessing
Cultural Spaces

T U E S D A Y , M A Y 1 9 , 2 0 1 5
1 2 : 0 0 P . M . - 1 : 3 0 P . M .

PRESERVATION PARTNERSHIP LUNCHEON: "EATING HIGH ON THE HOG"

Featuring Culinary Historian, Author, Chef and Radio Show Host, Dr. Jessica B. Harris, whose extensive work documents the foods and food-ways of the African Diaspora. Join us as we explore the broader scope of preservation that encompasses the conservation of food-ways, historic traditions, folkways and other culturally relevant customs.

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

Smithsonian
National Museum of African American History & Culture

JOHN G. RILEY
CENTER / MUSEUM

TURNBULL CONFERENCE CENTER
555 W. PENSACOLA STREET
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA 32306

To register for this TICKETED event, please contact Florida Network Staff at:
www.FAAHPN.com | 850-681-7881